SHMUEL GREENBAUM - Annual Mark Raiffie Memorial Lecture

A Victim's Personal Account: Fighting Terror with Kindness & Coping with Tragedy

A suicide bomber plowed into Sbarro's restaurant in Jerusalem on August 9, 2001 killing Shmuel Greenbaum's wife, Shoshona, and unborn child. He vowed to fight back. He waged a war, not with guns and grenades, but with kindness! This is a moving, inspiring story that will change your life.

Dinner for two with the guest speaker, two reserved seats at the lecture and your name listed in the evening program are available with your $180 patron contribution per lecture, or $500 sponsorship for the entire Speakers Series. For reservations and more information, please call 314-862-AISH(2474).
